

When & where dogs are allowed on Lancaster Event Center grounds

Horse, Livestock & Dog show events

- May be by owner's side on leash outside, in stall barns or in campground unless otherwise prohibited by specific show rules that will be posted
- Dogs kept in animal stalls or in/near campers must be on leash tied to stall/camper, supervised by owner & must keep area clean at all times so no odor
- No dogs are allowed in animal competition areas (show arenas) or in people-only spaces (carpeted areas, show offices, lobbies, meeting rooms, restrooms or cafe/food areas)

Spectator shows including annual Lancaster County Super Fair

- Dogs are not allowed in buildings, except Service Dogs and dogs competing in dog shows
- Spectator Show examples include: Trade shows, Indoor Motorsports like go kart races, tractor pull
- Spectator events like dinosaur show, circus, concerts, rodeos, bull rides

Service Dogs/Animals

- Always allowed per local and federal regulations
- Service dog/animal needs to be controlled by leash or harness with owner
- If service dog/animal not wearing service animal vest, please notify show or LEC staff on arrival that you are bringing a service animal
- For public safety and not to disrupt animal competitions, must contact show staff if want to visit areas where show animals are present beyond what is allowed for horse, livestock and dog shows e.g. show arenas

Dog sanitary rules

- Owner responsible to take dog to nearest grass area (or designated dog relief pen at dog shows)
- Owner responsible to pick up feces in plastic bag & throw in garbage
- Contact LEC cafe or operations staff if need a plastic bag

Sheltering Dogs

- Dogs kept outside for more than 30 minutes in adverse weather conditions must be provided shelter
- Owner must provide food and water
- No dog may be left in car/camper when weather is hot unless air conditioned & supervised by owner

Animal Control may be called to investigate a complaint for which the owner may be issued a citation or made to correct the violation on site. Feel free to contact Animal Control at 402.441.7900.

Other pets

Other than dogs as outlined above, no other pets or animals are allowed on Lancaster Event Center fairgrounds or inside buildings unless competing or performing in a show or with written permission from LEC Managing Director.
